HOW TO TURN YOUR CHILDREN INTO JOBS

Fun and games for all, including Kevin manfully hurtling down the slide

Sam Finniear explains what his parents get up to in the holidays

NOT EVERY TEACHER spends their summer being drowned in a bucket of spaghetti hoops but Head of English Kevin Finniear does just that. Every year 60 children catch the hovercraft over to the Isle of Wight for their local Christian camp.

YOB (Youth of Bognor) Camp, for 8-12 year-olds from Bognor and the surrounding area, is a week of fun, games, lots of gunge, but most importantly a chance for children to grow in their relationships with God. YOB has been running for seven years and attracts children from local primary schools and churches as well as a team of 20 leaders.

Youth of Bognor is organised by Alison and Kevin Finniear, who have five children of their own. Kevin teaches at St Philip Howard Catholic High School, Barnham, and is on the leadership team of a Bognor church.

Applications have opened so hurry up and get yours in!

SO HOW CAN YOU HELP?

- Send your child on YOB Camp. They will get to know Jesus better and enjoy a fun-packed holiday
- Apply to be a leader on camp and bring a group of children with you.
- Sponsor a child who could not afford to come on camp.
- Pray for us.

When: 17 – 23 August 2014 Who: Young people aged 8-12

Where: Westbrook Centre, Isle of Wight

How much? £220 Including food, travel, accommodation and activities.
