

ARIEL MESSIANIC BIBLE STUDIES EASTBOURNE

FREE BIBLE STUDY RESOURCES

We have an extensive collection of Messianic Bible studies by Dr Arnold G Fruchtenbaum, a Bible teacher from a Messianic Jewish frame of reference for 37 years. He is Founder and Director of Ariel Ministries (www.ariel.org).

THE CHURCH AND THE JEWS

This study is discussed in three main divisions. "What the Church has received from the Jews", "What it has cost the Church to withhold the Gospel from the Jews", and "The responsibility of the Church to the Jews".

THE MODERN STATE OF ISRAEL IN BIBLICAL PROPHECY

This study is discussed in three main divisions. "The five different perspectives on the modern State of Israel", "The regathering in unbelief in preparation for judgement", and three corollary issues.

WHY IS GOD SAVING GENTILES TODAY?

In recent centuries the issue has been whether God is saving Jews today, but in First Century congregations, the real issue was: Is God saving Gentiles, and if so, why? This study gives two main reasons why.

THE BASIS OF THE SECOND COMING OF THE MESSIAH

This study is discussed in two main divisions: the rejection of His Messiahship, and the major precondition attached to the Second Coming.

To request any of these studies, contact Cyril Cannon 01323 720528

A personal message from David Hathaway to HEART OF SUSSEX readers

I am so glad to be asked to speak in Newhaven as it was on the South Coast at the age of 15 that God spoke to me about the way forward in ministry.

Following 11 years as a pastor/evangelist in the UK, my ministry then moved to working in Russia and Europe in 1961, involving the first ever overland expedition to Jerusalem passing through Iron Curtain countries and smuggling Bibles to Russia and Eastern Europe, which resulted in my arrest, torture and imprisonment in Czechoslovakia. Having served one year, Harold Wilson was instrumental in securing my release.

In the following 40 years, my heart has continued to burn for Eastern Europe, the words of a fellow prisoner ringing in my ears: "David, don't forget us." In 1976 I organised the worldwide campaign for the successful release of Georgi Vins, a renowned Russian pastor from Kiev imprisoned in Siberia for many years for his faith. Following this I continued to be involved with underground churches, eventually openly holding services and conferences in Communist countries through the 1990s.

The words of a former prisoner ring in my ears: "David, don't forget us"

Today, in 2014, my ministry is focussed on providing spiritual and material assistance to the Russian Holocaust survivors in Israel. The work extends to the former soviet satellite countries, particularly Poland. I want to share some of the exciting things that are happening now and in the months to come.

EUROPE PLUNGED CLOSER TO A SECOND COLD WAR.

With Middle East peace talks on the verge of collapse and threats of sanctions and war on the doorstep of Europe, what does the future landscape look like for ordinary people struggling with the downturn, job losses and rising cost of living?

David Hathaway has over 50 years experience travelling and speaking in the Middle East and Eastern Europe having spent 12 months in a communist jail and escaping a 10 year sentence with the intervention of the Prime Minister.

Join us to hear David's unique insight into today's troubling times.

Songs and people on a journey at Aldingbourne

Jane Weeden chose songs of wanderings and homecomings

Pianist and composer Grenville Richard Harding brought out the lyrical beauty of Gospel melodies

Westergate Revival concert

St Mary's, Aldingbourne
Jane Weeden, soprano, and Grenville
Richard Harding, pianist composer

THE ANCIENT walls of Aldingbourne's St Mary's Church glowed with candles in sconces and a spring evening of first class music ensued. Jane Weeden had put together a programme of songs over four centuries, followed by songs of prodigals, wanderings and homecomings. Many were affected by these and by Grenville Harding's improvisation of Gospel songs, bringing out the lyrical beauty of "You are my Hiding Place", and "Jesus, Holy and Anointed One" among others.

We knew that we were hearing high quality professional music as Jane's voice soared above us and the keys of Grenville's piano rippled. We were taken by surprise in this sombre Sussex church as Jane processed through the candle light singing, "It will not be long now", accompanying herself on the Celtic bodhràn.

It was one of those special occasions, the intense green of spring outside, the tucked away location and the wonderful music. We were a group of people on a journey. St Mary's Aldingbourne provided a centuries old atmosphere, even for the welcome interval refreshments.

Grenville spoke of John Newton's (the writer of "Amazing Grace") conversion from captain of a slave ship to vicar, and Jane gave a brief explanation of the songs in her programme.

If you get a chance to attend another of these evenings, do go.

The policewoman, the peer and the former gangster turned good

Praying for the police was encouraged by Deputy Chief Constable Olivia Pinkney, seen here with former Muslim Terrol Lewis, whose Streetgym is reaching south London gangs

A force for good: Lord Michael Hastings

UNICEF & Patron of Free the Children, the world's largest youth social action movement. He was first Head of BBC Corporate Social Responsibility.

Lord Hastings spoke passionately on being a "force for good" and a positive influence in society. He introduced Terrol Lewis, founder of the first UK Streetgym based in Brixton. Terrol shared his moving and powerful testimony of becoming a Christian a few years ago while engaged in serious gang crime as a young Muslim in London.

Terrol's vision now is to bring together gang members through fitness and to see crime reduced. He is reaching and having a positive influence on south London gangs. Carl Wills, who also spoke on influencing communities, has served churches and organisations around the world since 1993, advising many networks as Senior Leader of the Pioneer churches.

Olivia Pinkney, Deputy Chief Constable of Sussex Police, has spoken persuasively on the dangers of human trafficking at Justin's previous events. This time she gave some important points for the Church to support Sussex Police in prayer: Afterwards, Justin said, "It was a wonderful mix of members of the House of Lords, very senior Police and ex-prisoners speaking together as a force for good - a sign of the kingdom!"

"Your Kingdom come"

Wiston Estate, with Lord Michael Hastings CBE, Carl Wills, Senior Leader of the Pioneer network of churches, and Olivia Pinkney, Sussex Police Deputy Chief Constable, 3 May

WINDLESHAM schoolteacher Justin Blake, who is also part of the wider team behind the Big Church Day Out, regularly brings together Christian leaders in key spheres of public life seeking to make a difference in society.

This time Justin (and the glorious downland setting of Wiston) had succeeded in luring Lord Michael Hastings CBE, Carl Wills and a welcome return visit from Olivia Pinkney, Sussex Police Deputy Chief Constable.

Justin said, "Michael Hastings is a very influential leader in Britain and was awarded a CBE in recognition of his services to reduce crime."

When not fighting crime, Lord Hastings is KPMG's Global Head of Citizenship and a member of the World Economic Forum Global Council. He holds a degree in Theology, is Vice President of

Shine on! Special needs group celebrates tenth birthday

A UNIQUE GROUP FOR ADULTS WITH LEARNING DISABILITIES has just celebrated its tenth birthday.

"Shine" was set up in May 2004 so that adults with special needs could come together for worship and find access to the Christian faith. Co-ordinator Marilyn Yarwood explained that it gives opportunities to pray and share experiences together in a non-judgemental and relaxed environment. "There is also Bible teaching that is understandable in language, yet not childish. Many of our group have been with us from day one and are good friends."

The tenth birthday celebration was held at Worthing Baptist Church, which has hosted the meetings since Marilyn's first husband, Rev Samuel Reading, was minister there.

Samuel Reading was a much-loved Baptist minister, but Marilyn, who remarried after being widowed, rejoices in the fact that in making "Shine" possible, Christians work together across the denominational divide.

"Shine", is one of nearly 200 Prospects groups across the UK. Other Sussex groups meet in Clymping, Lewes and Haywards Heath.
